SALARY: £40,000–£45,000 GROSS PER YEAR

PHS JOB 3754

Perfect Household Staff is seeking a dedicated live-out Nanny for a permanent, long-term position caring for two toddlers in North London. We are looking for a nurturing and reliable professional who enjoys supporting children's development and is interested in building a stable, long-term working relationship.

This is an engaging, hands-on childcare role centred around the children's daily routines, development and well-being. The Nanny will provide attentive day-to-day care, organise age-appropriate activities, encourage early learning and independence, and help establish a positive and structured daily routine.

The successful professional will plan creative and educational activities, support the children's developmental milestones, prepare nutritious and varied meals, and ensure that their personal belongings and play areas remain tidy and organised.

The position offers 35 - 40 hours over five days per week, with some flexibility required. The Nanny will occasionally be required to work additional hours, which will be agreed and paid separately. There may also be opportunities to accompany the family on occasional trips within Europe.

This position would suit a caring, organised and adaptable Nanny with a genuine interest in early childhood development. The family values a professional who can work independently, communicate effectively and contribute positively to the household.
