

LIVE-IN NANNY JOB | MAYFAIR, LONDON, UK, SALARY: £576 per week gross

PHS JOB 2871

Perfect Household Staff is delighted to assist a high-profile international family in Mayfair in their search for a professional and nurturing live-in nanny. With their first child entering a crucial stage of early development, the parents are seeking a warm, proactive, and highly experienced nanny to provide a structured yet loving environment while also encouraging independence and curiosity.

Both parents lead demanding professional lives and often travel for business, so they require a trustworthy and reliable nanny who can offer stability and consistency in their child's daily life. The family values education, creativity, and a well-balanced routine, and they are looking for a nanny who can integrate these elements into their child's upbringing. Travel will be required, as the family spends time abroad in Europe and the US, and the nanny will be expected to accompany them to ensure a seamless transition across different locations.

As a live-in role, the successful candidate will be provided with separate, private accommodation within the family's elegant Mayfair residence. The accommodation includes a spacious bedroom, a private bathroom, and a separate entrance for privacy, ensuring the nanny has comfort and independence while being available for the child when needed.

Mayfair is one of London's most exclusive neighbourhoods, known for its elegant residences, world-class amenities, and cultural richness. This role presents a rare opportunity for a highly skilled childcare professional to become an integral part of a warm and respectful family environment.

Perfect Household Staff has been placing top-tier childcare professionals in VIP households for over 15 years. If you are seeking a live-in nanny role in Mayfair, we are here to assist you.
