This is a long-term position offering a unique lifestyle for a professional couple passionate about private service and excellence in their work.

The principals are a warm and considerate family who deeply appreciate meticulous attention to detail, discretion, and a proactive, can-do attitude. They greatly value the contribution that domestic staff bring to the smooth running of their home and seek individuals who are genuinely committed to becoming an integral and valued part of their household. We are searching for a professional and experienced live-in couple who take genuine pride in their work and who seek a long-term commitment where they will be made to feel like valued members of the household. The successful candidates will be discreet, trustworthy, and adaptable, possessing strong teamwork skills while being capable of working independently. A high level of initiative, attention to detail, and the ability to anticipate the family's needs will be essential.

Key responsibilities will include maintaining the home to impeccable standards of cleanliness and organisation, expert care of luxury fabrics, specialist surfaces, and delicate household items, laundry and detailed wardrobe management, preparing fresh and wholesome family meals, as well as driving duties and oversight of the family's vehicles, including luxury marques. The role also includes support with the maintenance of the extensive grounds and leisure facilities such as the swimming pool, sauna, and steam room. An interest in light gardening and general outdoor maintenance would be advantageous.

Candidates with prior experience working in HNW or UHNW households will be particularly well-suited to this role, and a warm, professional demeanour with an empathetic approach will be highly regarded by the family.
