Daily duties will include full housekeeping, laundry, ironing, and colour-sorting of clothing, as well as the organisation of walk-in wardrobes and ensuring the property remains neat and welcoming at all times. There will also be occasional family cooking and simple meal preparation, along with light grocery shopping to ensure the kitchen is always well stocked. As the family own a small collection of silver and the new home will feature marble and wood finishes, the successful candidate must be confident in caring for fine and delicate surfaces. A natural eye for detail, excellent organisational skills, and an appreciation for discretion are all essential.
