The property is a spacious and comfortable residence featuring four bedrooms, three bathrooms, two living areas, a kitchen, lounge, office and utility room, offering an organised and pleasant working environment.

The household consists of two adults and three children, with two of the children staying at the property every other week. Flexibility and a positive attitude are appreciated, and there may be scope to increase working hours in the future for the right person. A DBS certificate and driving experience would be advantageous but are not essential. The family values professionalism, discretion, good manners and trustworthiness. Holiday entitlement will be provided, and a self-employed housekeeper is preferred. There may also be the opportunity to travel with the family during the summer.
