

PERMANENT FULL-TIME LIVE-OUT HOUSEKEEPER COOK JOB FULL-TIME HOUSEKEEPER COOK JOB | GUERNSEY, CHANNEL ISLANDS

Salary: £40,000–£55,000 gross per year

PHS Job 3348

Perfect Household Staff is delighted to present a fantastic opportunity for a professional Housekeeper Cook to join a warm and welcoming family household in Guernsey, Channel Islands. The household consists of four family members living permanently in a spacious five-bedroom home set across three floors. The family are friendly, respectful, and value a calm, organised household environment where cleanliness and attention to detail are essential. One of the children has asthma and allergies, therefore maintaining a high standard of hygiene throughout the home is particularly important. The family are also environmentally conscious and prefer the use of eco-friendly cleaning products in their household.

Guernsey is a beautiful island known for its stunning coastal scenery, relaxed lifestyle, and strong community atmosphere. The island offers picturesque beaches, charming cafés, excellent local produce, and a peaceful environment, making it a wonderful place to live and work. The location combines natural beauty with a comfortable and safe lifestyle, providing a highly desirable setting for a domestic professional seeking long-term employment.

Working as a professional Housekeeper Cook in this household involves maintaining the home to an immaculate standard while also assisting with the preparation of healthy family meals. The role requires someone organised, conscientious, and capable of managing the household independently, as there are no other members of staff. Duties will include all general housekeeping, laundry, ironing, and household organisation. Cooking responsibilities will primarily involve preparing healthy snacks for the children and assisting with dinner preparation, focusing on simple Mediterranean-style meals such as proteins with fresh vegetables. One member of the household follows a gluten-free diet due to coeliac requirements, therefore familiarity with gluten-free cooking such as gluten-free pasta or bread alternatives would be beneficial.
