Salary: NEGOTIABLE

PHS Job 3386

Perfect Household Staff is delighted to present a fantastic opportunity for a professional, detail-oriented, and discreet Housekeeper to join a prestigious fully staffed private household located in Mayfair, London. The household comprises four adult principals and is run to exceptionally high standards, requiring a calm, organised, and polished individual with excellent attention to detail and a strong sense of presentation. The family maintains a refined and welcoming environment and frequently entertains, therefore seeking a Housekeeper who can seamlessly integrate into a professional team. The successful candidate will be working alongside another Housekeeper, a dedicated Laundress, and a House Manager who also supports with hands-on duties, making this an excellent opportunity for a team-oriented professional accustomed to high-end private households.

This is a permanent, live-in position based in central London, offering accommodation in the form of a private bedroom with a shared bathroom within a fully staffed household. The role requires flexibility, as the family travels frequently; when the principals are in residence, the Housekeeper will work a full schedule across six days per week, while quieter periods when the family is abroad involve lighter morning duties while remaining fully paid. The position may also involve occasional travel to European properties for periods of up to three weeks. Working as a Housekeeper in this environment involves maintaining impeccable cleanliness and organisation, supporting household routines, assisting during periods of entertaining, and working collaboratively with the wider household team to ensure smooth daily operations.

Working as a Housekeeper in this household involves maintaining exceptional standards of cleanliness, organisation, and presentation across all areas of the residence. Duties include detailed cleaning of all surfaces, including delicate materials such as marble, silver, glass, and fine wood, wardrobe care for designer items, assistance with laundry and ironing, and preparation of guest areas. The role also includes supporting meal preparation and formal table setting, assisting during entertaining, and coordinating closely with the House Manager, Laundress, and other Housekeeper to ensure all duties are completed efficiently and to the highest standard within a well-structured team environment.
