

PERMANENT LIVE-OUT NANNY JOB | ILFORD, REDBRIDGE, LONDON

SALARY: £22– £25 GROSS PER HOUR (SELF-EMPLOYMENT)

PHS JOB 3446

A warm, welcoming, and values-driven family based in Ilford are seeking an experienced, nurturing, and highly capable Nanny to join their household and become a trusted and beloved presence in their daughter's daily life. The family has a two-year-old daughter who is the heart of the home, with plans to welcome a second child in the near future. The family are looking for the right person rather than the fastest person — someone who shares their values, who their daughter will genuinely connect with, and who will become a stable and cherished part of their family life for the long term.

The position is based in Ilford, a wonderfully well-connected area of East London with excellent transport links into Central London and across the wider city — making the commute easy and straightforward for candidates travelling from across Greater London and the surrounding areas. The role is offered on a live-out, self-employed basis.

The primary focus of the role is devoted, attentive, and developmentally rich childcare for the couple's two-year-old daughter — with the expectation that, as the family grows and the children's needs evolve, the role will naturally expand over time. The successful candidate will also be expected to assist with light household duties centred around the child's actively used areas — including tidying, organising toys and play spaces, managing the child's laundry, and supporting the general daily rhythm of the home. Occasional flexibility for babysitting in the evenings or at weekends is welcomed and will be compensated as additional hours or time off in lieu.
