PHS Job 3455

Perfect Household Staff is delighted to present an exceptional opportunity for a professional and experienced nanny to join a warm and welcoming family based in the charming town of Turriff, Aberdeenshire. Surrounded by the beautiful Scottish countryside, sandy beaches, and picturesque parks, this area offers a peaceful and family-oriented environment ideal for a nanny who enjoys outdoor activities and a healthy lifestyle. The family has two young children, a boy aged 2.5 years old and a girl aged 3.5 years old, as well as two friendly dogs. The principals are seeking an experienced, caring, and organised nanny who can confidently support the children's daily routines, nursery pick-ups, cooking, and laundry duties. The family also enjoys travelling internationally during holidays and would appreciate a nanny who is flexible and comfortable accompanying them on trips.

Working as a professional nanny within this household will involve providing attentive and nurturing care for the two young children while supporting their development through engaging and age-appropriate activities. The successful candidate will prepare healthy and nutritious meals suitable for the children's dietary requirements, including managing their allergy to eggs. Duties will include organising the children's laundry, maintaining tidy play and bedroom areas, assisting with nursery drop-offs and pick-ups, and accompanying the children to activities such as dancing classes, parks, beach visits, and trips to see grandparents. The family is looking for a pro-active nanny who can work independently while maintaining a calm and positive atmosphere within the home. As the property is located in the countryside, holding a driving licence is essential, and the family will provide a vehicle with automatic transmission for all childcare-related transportation.
