Perfect Household Staff is delighted to present an excellent opportunity for a proactive, capable, and experienced Housekeeper / Mother's Help to join a warm and busy private family household located in Kentford, near Newmarket in Suffolk. The household comprises two adult principals and three young children aged 6 years, 4 years, and 7 months, within a substantial eight-bedroom property with two reception rooms. The family are seeking a highly organised and initiative-driven professional who can take genuine responsibility for the smooth day-to-day running of the household, allowing the mother to focus on enjoying quality time with the children. The role would suit a confident individual who works independently, anticipates household needs naturally, and is comfortable managing a busy family environment without constant instruction or supervision.

This is a permanent, full-time, live-out position based in the beautiful countryside area of Kentford, offering a calm and family-oriented environment while remaining within easy reach of Newmarket and surrounding areas. Due to the rural location of the property and the requirement to run errands and occasionally drive the children to activities or appointments, a confident driver with their own car is essential for this role. The family are looking for someone flexible, practical, and hands-on, who enjoys supporting family life and contributing positively to a well-run household. The position is offered as formal employment.

Working in this Housekeeper / Mother's Help role will involve full housekeeping duties including cleaning, deep cleaning, laundry, ironing, changing bed linens, basic wardrobe management, tidying, and organising storage areas throughout the property. Responsibilities will also include running household errands, occasional simple cooking for the children, batch cooking following recipes when needed, and supporting the overall organisation of the home. Childcare support will be required on an ad hoc basis and may include taking children to activities, accompanying them on walks or playdates, assisting with toddler nap routines, and occasional dog walking for the family's friendly Labrador. This is an excellent opportunity for a professional Housekeeper / Mother's Help seeking a long-term role within a respectful and appreciative private household.
