Perfect Household Staff is pleased to announce an upcoming opportunity for an experienced and professional Housekeeper Nanny in the Winchester area. We are currently preparing for a new full-time live-out vacancy on behalf of a private family seeking a highly organised, proactive and dependable professional to support the smooth running of their household.

This forthcoming role is expected to suit an experienced Housekeeper Nanny with strong private household experience, excellent organisational abilities and a confident, hands-on approach. The position will combine high-standard housekeeping duties with family assistance and support for school-aged or teenage children within a busy but welcoming household environment.

The family is expected to seek a trustworthy and long-term professional capable of managing household responsibilities independently whilst maintaining a calm, structured and well-organised home. Duties are anticipated to include housekeeping, laundry and ironing, family cooking, school runs, household organisation, shopping, errands and general family support.

A confident driver with a valid driving licence will be essential due to the nature of the role and family requirements. Strong English communication skills, excellent time management and previous experience working within private households will also be highly valued.

This upcoming opportunity is expected to appeal to professionals seeking a stable and well-paid long-term role within a respectful private household in Hampshire. The family is likely to prioritise discretion, flexibility, reliability and the ability to work efficiently without supervision.
