Perfect Household Staff is delighted to present a fantastic opportunity for a professional, proactive, and detail-oriented Housekeeper to join a well-maintained private household located in Wimbledon, London. The household comprises adult principals only and is already run in a very organised and well-kept manner, with the family now seeking additional support to help maintain the home to its existing high standard. The property itself is manageable in size, consisting of three bedrooms, a workshop space, and a garden area. The family are seeking a trustworthy, initiative-driven professional with an excellent eye for detail and the ability to work independently without requiring constant supervision. Working as a Housekeeper in this household includes scheduled deep cleaning, laundry and ironing, wardrobe and linen management, changing beds and towels, cleaning windows, and maintaining the home to a consistently immaculate standard. Additional responsibilities include caring for delicate surfaces and specialist items such as silverware and antiques, maintaining outdoor furniture, monitoring household supplies, and overseeing general household maintenance by identifying repair needs, reporting them to the principals, and liaising with maintenance specialists and contractors when required. The family prefer eco-friendly household products and value a Housekeeper who takes a thoughtful and organised approach to household management.
