PHS Job 3525

Perfect Household Staff is delighted to present an excellent opportunity for an experienced Housekeeper Cook to join a welcoming elderly couple residing in a beautiful one-storey property with an adjoining boathouse situated on the bank of the river in the picturesque village of Wargrave, Berkshire. This charming riverside location is renowned for its scenic walks, attractive countryside surroundings, and excellent quality of life whilst remaining within easy reach of Reading and London. The principals enjoy regular visits from their family and are seeking a reliable, organised, and professional housekeeper cook who can assist with cleaning, light cooking, shopping, and household errands, helping to maintain their home to a consistently high standard.

Working as a housekeeper cook in this household offers an enjoyable and varied role within a respectful and appreciative environment. The successful candidate will be responsible for maintaining the cleanliness and organisation of both the five-bedroom main residence and the one-bedroom boathouse, caring for the laundry, making beds, and assisting with light meal preparation for breakfast and lunch when required. The role also involves shopping for household supplies, taking laundry to the dry cleaners, and running occasional errands using the candidate's own vehicle. The lady of the house is an artist, therefore particular care and attention will be required when maintaining her study and creative workspace. The family owns homes in France and Spain, where they spend several weeks each year, and there may be opportunities for occasional travel with the principals. There is also the possibility that the role may develop into a full-time position in the future.
