This position is available on either a live-in or live-out basis. Candidates choosing the live-in option will benefit from excellent accommodation, with the family offering either a comfortable guest annex comprising a private bedroom and sitting room, or a separate bedroom within a cottage with shared communal areas alongside the private chef. Both accommodation options provide a welcoming and comfortable environment, allowing the successful housekeeper to enjoy privacy whilst being conveniently located for work.

The live-out option is equally attractive, with Newtown being one of Cambridge's best-connected residential areas. The property is easily accessible by public transport, cycling routes, and major road links, making commuting straightforward for candidates living in Cambridge and the surrounding areas.
