Salary: £15,600–£20,800 gross per year, depending on experience

PHS Job 3558

Perfect Household Staff is delighted to present an excellent opportunity for a Housekeeper/Nanny to join a welcoming private household in the highly desirable area of South Kensington, London. This permanent part-time position is ideal for a reliable, flexible and proactive individual who enjoys maintaining a well-organised family home while providing occasional childcare support and simple family cooking when required.

South Kensington is one of London's most sought-after residential areas, renowned for its elegant architecture, excellent amenities, cultural attractions and outstanding transport connections. The area offers a convenient commute for candidates travelling from across London, making this an attractive opportunity for someone seeking a long-term position in a prestigious and well-connected location.

The household consists of two hands-on parents and their three children, aged 5, 9 and 11 years old. The family is looking for a positive, easy-going and adaptable professional who will become a valued member of their household. Both parents are actively involved in the children's daily routines, and the successful candidate will work as part of a team, supporting the family where needed while primarily focusing on maintaining the home.

The role is mainly focused on housekeeping within the family's three-bedroom property, ensuring the home remains clean, organised and well maintained. Additional responsibilities will include occasional school runs, childcare support when required, and preparing simple family-style evening meals. The successful candidate should be comfortable with variety and able to adapt their duties depending on the family's schedule. The family also has a cat, so candidates should be comfortable working in a pet-friendly household.
