PHS JOB 3597

A lovely opportunity has arisen for a versatile Housekeeper to join a warm family home in East Sussex. This is a modern, five-bedroom property home to a family of three, with older children who visit from time to time. The family currently have cleaners in twice a week but are looking for a good Housekeeper: someone who manages their time effectively in standard cleaning to keep the home in order, staying on top of the ironing, laundry, and general day-to-day household organisation.

They are looking for a warm, capable, and genuinely proactive Housekeeper who can work independently with minimal instruction once settled in.

This is a part-time, Monday to Friday position, with flexibility around the time of day. The family are also open and transparent about occasional periods of travel throughout the year (including extended trips), during which the successful candidate would be expected to continue their normal working pattern as agreed, or take planned time off by mutual arrangement, in line with standard practice.
