

PERMANENT PART-TIME FAMILY CHAUFFEUR

HACKNEY | LONDON | GB

Salary: £25–£30 Gross per Hour, depending on experience

PHS Job 3637

A private family based in Hackney, London, is seeking an experienced and reliable Part-Time Family Chauffeur to join their household on a permanent basis. The position is available to start ASAP and will involve approximately 10 hours per week, primarily during weekday afternoons.

The Chauffeur's main responsibility will be the safe and punctual transportation of the family's three children, with the majority of the driving focused on their 10-year-old daughter. The successful candidate will collect the children from school and transport them to their extracurricular activities, as well as return them home or take them to other agreed destinations as required.

Previous experience working for private families is mandatory for this position. Experience driving children is highly desirable, and the successful candidate should be confident navigating London and managing busy traffic while maintaining a calm, safe and professional approach at all times.

This is an excellent opportunity for an experienced Family Chauffeur seeking a long-term, part-time position with a private household. The family is looking for someone who is discreet, dependable, punctual and genuinely comfortable working around children, with the flexibility to adapt to the family's schedule and requirements.
