

PERMANENT PART-TIME LIVE-OUT HOUSEKEEPER/NANNY JOB CAMBRIDGE | CAMBRIDGESHIRE | GB

Salary: £23 GROSS PER HOUR
PHS Job 3664

Perfect Household Staff is delighted to present a lovely opportunity for a proactive, warm, and flexible Housekeeper/Nanny to join a friendly private family in Cambridge. The household comprises two adults and two children, aged eight and ten, and the family is looking for someone who can provide practical support across both housekeeping and childcare. The family already has a cleaner in place, creating a shared approach to household upkeep, and is seeking an additional trusted professional who can become a reliable part of their weekly routine. Cambridge offers an attractive combination of historic surroundings, green spaces, excellent amenities, and a welcoming family-oriented environment.

This is a permanent, part-time, live-out position with an initial schedule of Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, generally from 2:00pm to 8:00pm, with some flexibility around the working days and hours. During term time, the role will focus more on housekeeping and after-school support, while the school holidays will involve more nannying and taking the children on outings. The family can offer additional working hours for a Housekeeper/Nanny who would like to increase their schedule. The position requires a driving licence, with a manual family car provided for children's activities. The school runs do not require a car as the school is conveniently located just a few minutes' walk from the home.

Working as a Housekeeper/Nanny in this household involves combining practical household support with after-school care for two school-aged children. Housekeeping duties include general upkeep, laundry and ironing, keeping the home organised and tidy after the children, maintaining cupboards and pantries, managing deliveries, occasional grocery shopping, scheduled deep cleaning, bed making, and children's wardrobe organisation. The role also includes school pick-ups, driving the children to their clubs, overseeing homework time, and preparing fresh family meals on working days. During school holidays, the nannying element becomes more prominent, with support for outings and activities. This is a varied position suited to a confident professional who enjoys combining housekeeping and childcare and can bring initiative, warmth, and flexibility to a busy family home.

Only candidates who have the eligibility to work in the UK will be considered for this role.
