KINGSWOOD | KINGSTON UPON HULL | EAST RIDING OF YORKSHIRE | GB

Salary: starting from £12 to £15 net per hour

PHS Job 3667

Perfect Household Staff is delighted to present a welcoming opportunity for a starter housekeeper cook to join a friendly family in Kingswood, Kingston upon Hull, East Riding of Yorkshire. The family has two daughters, aged one and nine, and is looking for a kind, reliable, and willing person who would like to build experience in a private home. This is a particularly good opportunity for someone who is new to private housekeeping and would like to learn and develop their skills while working with a family.

The housekeeper cook will help the family with simple everyday household tasks. The work includes basic cleaning, laundry, ironing, folding clothes, and sending clothes to the dry cleaners when needed. Cooking is also part of the role, but it is simple home-style cooking rather than complicated or professional cooking. Batch cooking is welcome, so meals can be prepared in advance for the family. No special cleaning or cooking skills are required, making this a suitable position for someone who is hardworking, organised, and eager to learn.

This role is specifically suitable for someone who does not have previous private household experience. The family is open to candidates who have experience in cleaning, cooking, hospitality, childcare, hotels, or similar environments, as well as motivated individuals who are keen to learn.

The cooking is straightforward home-style cooking, and the cleaning is basic household cleaning with no special cleaning methods required. The family also allows the housekeeper cook to eat the meals prepared for the family, which is an additional benefit of the position.
