

PERMANENT FULL-TIME LIVE-OUT TAGALOG AND SPANISH SPEAKING NANNY JOB PIMLICO | LONDON | GB

Salary: £18 - £25 gross per hour depending on the qualifications

PHS Job 3697

Perfect Household Staff is delighted to present an excellent opportunity for a professional, caring, and development-focused Nanny to join a private family in Pimlico, London, providing dedicated care for a young child. The family is seeking a bilingual Nanny who speaks both Tagalog and Spanish, as these language skills are essential to the role. They would welcome someone trustworthy, conscientious, and flexible, with a genuine interest in early years development and the ability to provide attentive, age-appropriate care. A background in early years education would be an advantage, and the family is looking for a dedicated childcare professional interested in building a long-term relationship with the child.

This is a permanent, full-time position based in Pimlico, an attractive central London location with excellent local amenities and transport connections. The usual working hours are Monday to Friday, approximately 8:00am to 5:00pm or 6:00pm, with some flexibility required for occasional weekend work. The final salary will depend on the successful candidate's experience and qualifications. The family will also expect the Nanny to travel with them, so a candidate who is comfortable with this possibility would be preferred.

Working as a Nanny in this household involves providing attentive, age-appropriate care for a young child, supporting their development through engaging activities, play, and consistent daily routines. Responsibilities include preparing fresh, healthy, and nutritious meals for the child, managing the child's laundry, and keeping play areas tidy and organised. The family is looking for a proactive Nanny who can focus fully on the child during working hours, encourage early learning, and provide a safe, nurturing, and stimulating environment. This role would suit an experienced childcare professional who values developmental progress and a stable, long-term position within a private family.
