

PERMANENT FULL-TIME LIVE-IN NORLAND NANNY JOB

RIVER VALLEY | SINGAPORE

Salary: higher than market rate, based on qualifications

PHS Job 3704

Perfect Household Staff is delighted to present an exceptional opportunity for a highly qualified, Norland-trained nanny to join a high-profile family in River Valley, Singapore. The family is seeking an experienced childcare professional to provide outstanding care for their one-year-old child, with a focus on safety, development, and age-appropriate activities. River Valley is a sought-after residential neighbourhood known for its convenient access to Singapore's city centre, riverside surroundings, and excellent selection of amenities. The family is looking for a nanny who combines warmth and professionalism with the highest standards of childcare and is comfortable occasionally travelling internationally with the family to destinations including Australia, the USA, Japan, and other parts of Asia.

Working as a private nanny is a rewarding profession that involves supporting a child's wellbeing, development, and daily routine while providing parents with confidence that their child is receiving attentive, individualised care. Responsibilities commonly include planning age-appropriate activities, supporting early learning, preparing meals and snacks for the child, maintaining consistent sleep and feeding routines, and ensuring a safe, stimulating environment. In this role, the nanny will focus exclusively on the care and development of a one-year-old child, provide occasional meal preparation, and accompany the family on international trips when required. Formal Norland training is a mandatory requirement for this position, reflecting the family's commitment to exceptional childcare standards.
