PERMANENT FULL-TIME LIVE-IN DOMESTIC COUPLE JOB

CORK GREAT | DUBLIN | IE

Salary: starting from €72,000 gross per year

PHS Job 3722

A private couple are seeking an experienced, reliable, and flexible domestic couple to maintain and manage their beautiful nine-bedroom residence in Cork Great, near Bray, County Dublin. The principals' children live independently, and the family spend approximately four months of the year at the property, particularly during Christmas, Easter, and the summer months. During these periods, the domestic couple will be required to provide comprehensive household support, including professional housekeeping, cooking, security, and driving services. The family may entertain up to 12 guests, so the ability to prepare varied international cuisine and provide attentive table service will be particularly valuable. This is an excellent opportunity for a professional couple seeking a secure, long-term position in a private household, with the flexibility to adapt to the principals' changing requirements.

Working as a domestic couple requires excellent teamwork, flexibility, and a shared commitment to maintaining the smooth operation of a private residence. Responsibilities typically encompass housekeeping, laundry, household security, property oversight, cooking, driving, and assisting with the organisation of the household. A successful domestic couple should be pro-active, trustworthy, discreet, and capable of working independently while coordinating effectively with other household staff. The ability to prepare varied meals, accommodate guests, oversee daily household requirements, and identify maintenance or security concerns is essential to providing a consistently high standard of service.
