PERMANENT FULL-TIME LIVE-OUT NEPALI-SPEAKING CHAUFFEUR JOB

MAYFAIR I WESTMINSTER I LONDON I GB

SALARY: £50,000 - £55,000 GROSS PER ANNUM, DEPENDING ON EXPERIENCE

PHS JOB 3734

A family spending more of their time in London is looking for a permanent, full-time Nepali Speaking Chauffeur for its household in Westminster, London (Charles Street). The role is live-out and suits an experienced private driver who is calm, well organised and happy to be busy across a varied day.

The household is spread over two family properties in Westminster, London, within walking distance of each other. The main property is the base for the role, and the family's cars are kept there. Most of the driving is in central London, so the successful Chauffeur should be fully confident with city traffic, short-notice trips and parking in busy streets. Because the role is live-out, candidates should be able to get to central London reliably at the start of each working day.

The work centres on the family. Several family members each have their own plans and needs, and the senior members of the family always come first. Alongside driving the family, the Chauffeur will move items between the two properties, including meals prepared by the household's chef, and will go out on shopping trips and errands with family members. The Chauffeur also looks after the vehicles at the main property: daily checks, keeping them fuelled and making sure every car is ready before it is handed to the family. Further vehicles are kept in storage and are brought in when family members visit.

The family describes the ideal person as open-minded and very flexible. The job is not limited to one address or one routine, and plans can change during the day. Previous experience in a private household is essential. The family values a disciplined, structured way of working and a steady, hard-working attitude.
