PERMANENT FULL-TIME LIVE-OUT HOUSEKEEPER JOB
WANDSWORTH | LONDON | GB

Salary: £25 gross per hour

PHS Job 3735

A busy family in Wandsworth, London, is looking for a reliable Part-Time Housekeeper to help keep their three-storey, four-bedroom home clean, tidy and well organised. The family consists of two adults and one young child, and there is also a family dog. This is a housekeeping position only, with no childcare required.

This is a live-out role working two days per week, with a flexible start after 8am and finishing no later than 5.30pm. The family is looking for someone reliable who is comfortable working independently. The first few visits may be a little longer while everything is brought fully up to standard. After this, the family will agree a regular routine with the Housekeeper.

The main focus of the role will be keeping the home clean, organised and running smoothly on a day-to-day basis. The family uses eco-friendly cleaning products and would ideally like someone who is comfortable looking after quartz worktops, wooden floors and other household surfaces. Duties will include regular and deep cleaning, laundry, ironing, bed making, basic wardrobe care and keeping cupboards and household supplies in order. The Housekeeper will also be expected to notice when something needs attention, such as low household stocks or linen that needs replacing, and deal with it as part of the normal housekeeping routine.

There is also the possibility of additional hours for occasional vegan family-style batch cooking, shopping and errands, or dog walking. These are optional, ad hoc duties and the family is flexible depending on the candidate's interests and availability.

Only candidates who have the eligibility to work in the UK will be considered for this role.
