PERMANENT PART-TIME LIVE-OUT HOUSEKEEPER JOB

CHELSEA | KENSINGTON AND CHELSEA | LONDON | GB

Salary: £23-£27 gross per hour, depending on experience

PHS JOB 3738

A small, warm family is looking for an experienced Housekeeper to care for their London flat in Kensington and Chelsea on a permanent, part-time and live-out basis. The role is 15 hours a week over three set days, spread through the week so that the home is always clean, fresh and ready for the family's return.

The flat is in Kensington and Chelsea, London, in an area served by Sloane Square, South Kensington and Knightsbridge stations, so the journey to work by public transport is straightforward for a live-out Housekeeper. The home is a one-bedroom flat in a well-kept building, a manageable size that allows the work to be done properly and calmly within the set hours.

The family divides its time between London and abroad, and the flat is used mostly at weekends during school term, so the Housekeeper will usually work on their own and will be trusted to look after the home between visits. The work centres on high-standard cleaning, care of the wooden parquet floors, fresh bed linen and towels each week, laundry and ironing, and resetting the flat after each stay; there is no cooking. In the first weeks from January the family will be setting up the home with new linens, towels and tableware, and will welcome the Housekeeper's help in organising everything and in being present for contractors and deliveries.

Above all, the family would like a positive, warm and family-oriented person who cares about the household as a whole. With the family often overseas, they would value the peace of mind of a dependable person in London who can step in to help the family in an emergency until a parent arrives. School holidays such as Easter are busier times when the family is in London, while the summer months and the festive season are quiet periods when the family is away.

This position would suit an experienced private-household Housekeeper with high personal standards who would like a settled, part-time role with clear hours, a small home to care for and a family who will appreciate their reliability and care.
